Opportunity

Opportunity Title	Provision of fire risk assessment consultants
Buying Organisation	The London Organising Committee of the Olympic Games and Paralympic Games Ltd
Website	www.london2012.com
Opportunity Method	Contract Opportunity
Opportunity Type	London 2012 supply chain (private sector)
Nature of Opportunity	Services
Estimated contract value (GBP)	Not disclosed
	About the Opportunity: LOCOG is seeking to appoint experienced fire assessment consultants to deliver fire risk assessment, guidance and advice as well as managing the fire safety solution for the Olympic and Paralympic games including the test events.
	LOCOG requires full time support from the end of November 2011 through to March 2012 at venues for the test events followed by support on an ad-hoc basis through to the Olympic Games.
Description	The core services required will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Identifying relevant building and site information• Producing findings including photographs as deemed necessary• Identifying proposed action plans for identified improvements• Producing proposals for reducing or controlling risk within premises• Producing active and passive fire safety measures• Property protection• Maintenance of fire safety systems• Identifying means of escape arrangements including disabled arrangements• Identifying dangerous and related substances where relevant• Identifying persons at risk including staff, students, visitors,

contractors and fire-fighters

- Identifying environmental effects of a potential fire including internal, external, location and long term impacts
 - Identifying considerations for business operational aspects relating to a serious fire incident including short and long term considerations
- LOCOG recognises the importance of general fire safety precautions and fully expects a high quality accurate service that will enable LOCOG to consider the findings of the fire risk assessments to make appropriate judgements for remedial action.

The fire risk assessments should identify improvements and actions necessary in a prioritised manner to enable LOCOG to comply with its statutory requirements under current fire safety legislation.

About the buyer's selection process:

Responses to these CompeteFor questions will be evaluated and a shortlist of potential suppliers will be prepared. Successful applicants will be those which, in LOCOG's sole opinion, are most capable of fulfilling LOCOG's requirements as set out in this opportunity.

Successful shortlisted suppliers will be e-mailed with details of next steps after the opportunity has closed on CompeteFor. In addition to responding to these questions on CompeteFor, applicants should be prepared to provide evidence to their responses, in the event of being shortlisted.

Bidders should note that LOCOG may manage the next phase of the procurement process online using our eTendering system.

LOCOG operates a fair and transparent procurement process. Further information on the values that underpin LOCOG procurement can be found in our Diversity and Inclusion Business Charter, available here on the London 2012 website:
<http://www.london2012.com/businesscharter>

LOCOG's view of value for money is different to that of some other companies. In support of our vision for London 2012 (as described in the 'About the buyer' section below), we must consider a broad range of criteria when assessing proposals from bidders. As such, LOCOG defines value for money on the basis of a range of criteria, namely:

- Quality, delivery and disposal
- Commercial
- Sustainability
- Diversity and inclusion
- Legal, financial, health and safety

For further information about LOCOG and our procurement process, please read the LOCOG Invitation to Tender (ITT) Part 1 which is available on the London 2012 website:

About the buyer:

LOCOG is responsible for preparing and staging memorable Olympic and Paralympic Games in 2012. LOCOG is also responsible for staging a series of Test Events in the run-up to the Games; recruiting and training volunteers; and overseeing the four-year Cultural Olympiad leading up to the Games.

Find out more about LOCOG and the people delivering the Games:
<http://www.london2012.com/about-us>

LOCOG's vision is to use the power of the Games to inspire lasting change.

This means change in people's lives; in levels of sport participation; in attitudes to disability; and change in the communities across London, particularly east London. It means change in attitudes towards sustainability and protecting the world we live in; in how everyone participates and engages with the Games; and in how cities host the Games.

To realise this vision we aim to deliver Games that:

- provide experiences of a lifetime;
- capture the imagination of young people all over the world; and
- create physical, social and sporting legacies to meet the long-term needs of people and their communities.

Our suppliers will play a critical role in helping LOCOG to stage a memorable Games and supporting the delivery of our vision for London 2012. LOCOG contract opportunities cover a range of goods and services, split into eight different categories:

- Artists, performance and events
- Facilities management and catering
- Security
- Services
- Sports
- Technology
- Transport and logistics
- Venues and infrastructure

We will periodically update and share our schedule of future CompeteFor opportunities. View the latest information on the London 2012 website:
