About the Opportunity:

To meet its legal obligation under Health & Safety (First Aid) Regulations 1981 (revised October 2009), LOCOG is responsible for the first aid provision to all personnel who will be working at the new competition and training venues.

Whilst LOCOG Medical Service will provide first aid cover during trainings and competitions, the construction and deconstruction phases are currently out of scope for LOCOG Medical.

Description

For first aid provision during the construction and deconstruction phases, LOCOG envisaged that provision of first aid trainings to LOCOG personnel is the most effective way to satisfy this obligation.

LOCOG is looking to appoint a supplier (suppliers) to design and provide training courses to an appropriate number of LOCOG staff who will be working at the venues.

The supplier (suppliers) will be responsible for:

- Determination of adequate first aid provision at each venue
- Design and conduction of training sessions with appropriate number of individuals per session

- Provision of necessary equipment and credible certificates for training courses

The total number of students is estimated to be:

- Three-day First Aid at Work course: 240
- One-day First Aid at Work course: 1200
- AED specific course: 240

The work is expected to commence at the beginning of January for a period of six months.

About the buyer's selection process:

Responses to these CompeteFor questions will be evaluated and a shortlist of potential suppliers will be prepared. Successful applicants will be those which, in LOCOG's sole opinion, are most capable of fulfilling LOCOG's requirements as set out in this opportunity.

Successful shortlisted suppliers will be e-mailed with details of next steps after the opportunity has closed on CompeteFor. In addition to responding to these questions on CompeteFor, applicants should be prepared to provide evidence to their responses, in the event of being shortlisted.

Bidders should note that LOCOG may manage the next phase of the procurement process online using our eTendering system.

LOCOG operates a fair and transparent procurement process. Further information on that values that underpin LOCOG procurement can be found in our Diversity and Inclusion Business Charter, available here on the London 2012 website:
<http://www.london2012.com/businesscharter>

LOCOG's view of value for money is different to that of some other companies. In support of our vision for London 2012 (as described in the 'About the buyer' section below), we must consider a broad range of criteria when assessing proposals from bidders. As such, LOCOG defines value for money on the basis of a range of criteria, namely:

- Quality, delivery and disposal
- Commercial
- Sustainability
- Diversity and inclusion
- Legal, financial, health and safety

For further information about LOCOG and our procurement process, please read the LOCOG Invitation to Tender (ITT) Part 1 which is available on the London 2012 website:

About the buyer:

LOCOG is responsible for preparing and staging memorable

Olympic and Paralympic Games in 2012. LOCOG is also responsible for staging a series of Test Events in the run-up to the Games; recruiting and training volunteers; and overseeing the four-year Cultural Olympiad leading up to the Games.

Find out more about LOCOG and the people delivering the Games:
<http://www.london2012.com/about-us>

LOCOG's vision is to use the power of the Games to inspire lasting change. This means change in people's lives; in levels of sport participation; in attitudes to disability; and change in the communities across London, particularly east London. It means change in attitudes towards sustainability and protecting the world we live in; in how everyone participates and engages with the Games; and in how cities host the Games.

To realise this vision we aim to deliver Games that:

- provide experiences of a lifetime
- capture the imagination of young people all over the world
- create physical, social and sporting legacies to meet the long-term needs of people and their communities.

Our suppliers will play a critical role in helping LOCOG to stage a memorable Games and supporting the delivery of our vision for London 2012. LOCOG contract opportunities cover a range of goods and services, split into eight different categories:

- Artists, performance and events
- Facilities management and catering
- Security
- Services
- Sports
- Technology
- Transport and logistics
- Venues and infrastructure
